

I am opposed to the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law.

I am against the "established business relationship" exemption that the CBA is attempting to allow.

Just because I have been doing business with a company, should not give them the right to solicit new business from me.

Calls should be allowed to service existing business only.